

PrestoSpace User Group Meeting
Amsterdam, Felix Meritis Building - Keizersgracht 324
11 October 2005

Preliminary Agenda

- 9.00 Registration and coffee
- 9.45 Welcome by Edwin van Huis, Netherlands Institute for Sound and Vision (B&G) and Daniel Teruggi, Institut National de l'Audiovisuel (INA), moderator
- 10.00 Preserving the audiovisual heritage:
progress and first results of the integrated project on
* preservation, by Jean Hughes Chenot (INA)
* restauration, by Georg Thallinger (Joanneum Research)
* storage, by Adam Lee (BBC)
* metadata, by Giorgio Dimino (RAI)
- 11.00 Coffee Break
- 11.30 Additional target user survey results, by Beth Delaney (B&G) and Yola de Lusenet (ECPA)
* TAPE results compared to PS User Requirements Survey
* Estimation on budget and preservation planning
- 12.00 Storage problems and solutions, the STAG approach by Ant Miller (BBC)
- 12.30 Lunch
- 1.30 Evolution of the Preservation Factories Business Model, by Daniel Teruggi
What strategy for the PrestoSpace factories?
- 2.15 What next for users and service providers?
* upcoming usability testing: how will it work? by Christoph Bauer (ORF)
* annual report by Adam Lee
- 3.00 Break
- 3.30 Demo and poster sessions on the results by Work Area Leaders:
*Before/after comparisons for audio and visual restoration
*Prototype of MAD Annotation Application
*Access to SAM information via the Web
*Training video by David Jordan (BBC)
- 4.45 Wrap up by Daniel Teruggi